

STUDENT WORKSHEET

Name:

Travels of Electricity

1.	You can move faster than elect	ricity can. (True or False)
2.	Circle three objects from the lis an aluminum ladder a copper wire a fiberglass ladder	t below that conduct electricity: lineman's rubber gloves a metal bench a glass insulator
	What these objects have in common is that they are made of
3.	3. Insulators are important for safety around electricity because
4.	I. Plugging too many things into an outlet can overload it and cause
5.	5. Guess whether the power lines to your building are overhead or underground. Now

Date:

- 6. Use the following three items—a D battery, a light bulb, and two pieces of wire—
- to draw a complete electric circuit that will allow the bulb to light up.

look outside. Were you right?